IFC Announces Rules Miss BGSU Contest Set For Jan. 5

For February Rush

Interfraternity Council passed rush rules for Feb., 1962, at its Dec. 4 meeting.

The revised rules, as drawn up by Bruce G. Campbell, IFC administrative vice president, are as follows:

"Between 3 and 5 p.m. Thursday and Friday, Feb. 8 and 9, and between 9 and 11 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 10, the IFC will have tables set up in the mezzanine lounge of Rodgers Quadrangle for registration of freshmen and upperclassmen who wish to rush. At this time, the rushee must pay a $2 registration fee, which helps defray costs of printing rush cards and other items. The rushee will be given two double master cards giving the times of formal rush periods to be held Feb. 12 and Feb. 14.

"The rushee will then take these cards and sign up with a representative present from each fraternity. He will then return one of these cards to the IFC representative who will certify the registration by filing the card. The other card is to be kept by him for a guide. No rushee will be allowed to pledge unless there is a registration card for him on file with the IFC.

"On Feb. 12 and Feb. 14, the rushee will visit the house assigned on his official date card.

"During the hours of 1 and 5 p.m. Feb. 15, the rushee is to go to the Dogwood Suite and select a maximum of seven and a minimum of five houses to be visited Feb. 16. No registration fee will be charged at this time. He will return one of the two new schedule cards to the IFC representative.

"Feb. 19, is the beginning of what is called 'free association on and off campus.' There are to be no rushees in the houses and no formal or organized parties in the houses or off campus on either Feb. 19, Feb. 21, or Feb. 22.

"The rushee shall go to the Alumni Room between 1 and 5 p.m. and sign up for a maximum of four and a minimum of two houses to be visited that evening. Registration procedure shall be the same.

"He will then visit the Ohio Suite between 1 and 5 p.m. Friday, Feb. 23, and pick up invitations for two houses that evening. Parties shall be 'stag' for this evening. Girls may be present to act as receptionists, to check coats, etc., but there will be no dates.

"Bids from the fraternities must be in the IFC office before 6 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 24. They shall be issued to rushees from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. in the IFC office. All contact between rushees and fraternity men will have ended at 11:30 p.m., Friday, Feb. 23.

"These rush rules go into effect immediately."

Rules Listed For Sorority Rushing

By Billie Amundson
"Open contact, casual contact, restricted contact"—these terms sound as if they come from a book of rules on wrestling.

Actually, they pertain to sorority formal rush which has as many rules and regulations as any sport.

In many ways rushing can be compared to a competitive sport because each sorority is out to win. Each one is interested in winning the best women going through rush. The competition is keen and many problems regarding illegal or unfair rushing arise; therefore, rushing rules must be made and followed. This is where Panhellenic Council comes in; its job is to decide upon the rules.

Contact Periods
The contact periods mentioned above are specific intervals of time during which the type of communication between sorority women and rushees is carefully designated by Pan Hel.

If there were no rules stating the exact type of communication, the period right before the beginning of formal rush would be chaos. The sororities would, no doubt, try to invite as many women to their houses as possible in order to influence their pledging decision. The rushees' opinions of the sororities would be biased before rush started, valuable study time would be taken, and many women rushees might be left out in the shuffle. This would be unfair both to the sorority women and the rushees—thus, the contact periods.

Visiting Permitted
The open contact period began with the opening of the school in September, and will end Monday, Jan. 1. During this time, visiting between sorority women and rushees in the sorority houses and dormitories is permitted, but no potential rushee is allowed to have dinner or spend the night in the sorority house. All other contact on or off campus is normal.

The casual contact period is from Tuesday, Jan. 2, to Wednesday, Jan. 31.

Dates Arranged
Throughout casual contact double-dating is permitted providing the sorority members do not arrange the dates for the rushees. Visiting between sorority women and upperclass women in the houses and upperclass dormitories is also permitted. Freshman dormitories are closed to sorority women, and sorority houses and upperclass dormitories are closed to freshman women. There must be no attempt on the part of sorority women or rushees to influence each other concerning pledging.

During the restricted contact period, from Wednesday, Jan. 31, to Friday, Feb. 16, sorority formal rush will be going on. This is the reason for the rigid limits on communication between sorority women and rushees at this time.

Communications of any kind between rushees and sorority women is prohibited except business and a casual greeting in passing. There must be no double-dating.

Sorority women may meet with upperclass independent friends outside the houses and the dormitories. Blood sisters also are permitted to telephone each other and to see each other in case of emergencies.

If, for business reasons, a sorority woman must enter a closed dormitory, she must register with the head resident and give the name of the person she wishes to see.

There is a period of absolute silence from Friday, Feb. 16, through Saturday, Feb. 17. This is the period during which pledging preferences are signed and bids are sent out. There must be absolutely no communication between sorority women and rushees at this time.

AWS Legislative Body Extends Phone Hours

Telephone hours in upperclass women's residence halls and in sorority houses will be lengthened to 11:30 p.m. instead of the current 11 p.m. deadline.

The change, passed at a recent meeting of the Legislative Board of the Association of Women Students, will go into effect as soon as the arrangements to have the switchboards open for the additional half hour can be made.

A suggestion which would allow women students to wear sports clothes on campus after 5 p.m. on Sundays was defeated at the same meeting.

The majority of board members felt that since there are numerous visitors on campus on Sundays women should remain in Sunday dress all day.

BG's Preuninger In Competition For Aviation Bowl Queen Title

Sibyl G. Preuninger is in Dayton competing for the title of Aviation Bowl Queen.

Miss Preuninger, Bowling Green's 1961 Homecoming Queen, is competing with Homecoming queens from the other Mid-American Conference schools.

The Aviation Bowl game, sponsored by the Greater Dayton Junior Chamber of Commerce, will be played at 1 p.m. tomorrow in Welcome Stadium in Dayton, between Western Michigan University and the University of New Mexico.

A series of events, including the selection of the Aviation Bowl Queen, will precede the game.

A luncheon will be held today for the queen candidates and mem-

The "most attractive and most talented" female on campus will be selected at the second annual Miss BGSU contest at 8:15 p.m. Friday, Jan. 5, in the ballroom.

The contest, sponsored and originated by the Alpha Tau Omega social fraternity, is patterned after the Miss America Pageant.

Judged on talent, beauty, and poise, each of the 19 contestants was chosen by the women of her residence hall.

Each contestant will appear twice—once in bermuda shorts and sweaters and once in evening dresses. From the 19 entries, 10 finalists will be selected by the judges to present their talents. One of the 10 finalists will be named Miss BGSU and two will become runners-up. A permanent trophy will be awarded to Miss BGSU and to the residence hall that she represents.

Gordon "Skip" Ward, WTOL-TV newscaster, will be master of ceremonies. Dennis Salley, comedian-singer-dancer from Detroit, will provide the entertainment during the judging.

Judges for the contest have not been announced.

Contestants are: Carol Lower, Harmon; Nancy Cole, Williams; Andrea Worthington, Prout; Sharon Gilmer, Delta Gamma; Mollie Hamel, Alpha Chi Omega; Sally Williams, Mooney; Ireta Meyers, Kappa Delta; Lynn Funkhouser, Shatzel; Jan Dickman, Gamma Phi Beta; Virginia Wolfe, Phi Mu; Becky Kruber, Chi Omega.

Sue Collinsworth, Alpha Delta Pi; Georgia Gormastic, Alpha Gamma Delta; Sandy Simodi, Alpha Phi; Georgia Frohlich, Delta Zeta; Ann Poling, Kohl; Sally Greenough, Treadway; Audrey Tucker, Lowry; and Bonnie Gawronski, Alpha Xi Delta.

To the Editor:

I would like to express my appreciation for the many cards and flowers sent by my University friends.

Trustees To Decide Case Of Dr. Stanage

A decision on the status of Dr. Sherman N. Stanage will be made when the Board of Trustees holds its regular meeting Jan. 12.

The announcement was made Tuesday by Carl Schwyn of Cygnet, acting President of the Board, at the close of an unofficial, closed session. The meeting lasted about six hours.

Dr. Stanage and his academic counsel, Dr. Grover C. Platt, were given one hour and a half to present their arguments against the dismissal.

Dr. Stanage contends that his dismissal last June was made without valid cause and in defiance of tenure regulations here.

Acting President Ralph G. Harshman said a decision could be expected "in a few days" on the cases of Dr. Howard O. Brogan and Dr. Charles W. Young who were demoted by Dr. McDonald last July. They claim they lost their department chairmanships because they supported Dr. Stanage.

Mr. Schwyn called yesterday's meeting productive and said it was obvious the trustees were giving serious study to the Stanage case. He added that he hopes board chairman E. T. Rodgers of Tiffin, who has missed recent meetings because of illness, would be present on Jan. 12.

Second Lecture Series Program Features Noted Poet Ogden Nash

"The Portable Ogden Nash" will be the second presentation of the Lecture Series at 8:15 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 7, in the ballroom.

Ogden Nash is world-famous for producing light verse. Among the titles in the Nash library are "Good Intentions," "Many Long Years," and "The Face is Familiar."

Mr. Nash, who was born in Rye, N.Y., entered Harvard in 1924 and left after one year. He sold bonds for two years in New York and then worked in the advertising department of Doubleday Page the publishing house.

Except for a brief term as managing editor of "The New Yorker" in 1931, Mr. Nash has concentrated for 25 years on producing the light verse that has become associated with his name.

His book, "Hard Lines," published in 1936, established him as a master of humorous verse. He wrote the lyrics and was co-author of the musical, "One Touch of Venus."

Tickets for Mr. Nash's lecture go on sale Jan. 3 in the Union lobby. Reserved seats are $2.50; general admission, $1.75; and students, 25 cents.

Christmas Traditions Vary In Christian World

By Judi Overman

Traditional Christmas expressions of peace, joy, and love vary throughout the Christian world.

From the singing of carols through the night in East Africa to the almond festival in Oslo, Norway, and "Holy Eve" in Munich, Germany, different lands have different ways of wishing everyone a Merry Christmas.

Jim B. Karugu, Liberal Arts senior from Kenya, East Africa, reported, "On Christmas Eve at home it seems as if the entire countryside turns into one choir; voices can be heard for miles and miles. We think of Christmas only as a religious occasion and celebrate it in a religious manner."

The African carolers carry hurricane lamps or candles as they wander across the countryside. They leave flowers at each home they visit.

Early Christmas Day in East Africa, a majority of persons attend church. After church they return home for feasting and parties, then begin exchanging gifts. It is a tradition in Africa to give gifts, not only on Christmas, but throughout the year. On Christmas Day they give a new dress or suit.

Anne Baggethun, a student from Morten, Norway, spoke of Christmas in her native land. There it is celebrated on Christmas Eve. The Norwegians go to church in the afternoon and feast in the evening.

During dinner, a rice pudding is served. In the pudding is one almond. "Whoever gets the almond in his dish of pudding receives a special gift. This person is also supposed to have good luck for the coming year," said Miss Baggethun.

Ulrich H. Keller, a freshman in the College of Business Administration from Germany, said, "On Dec. 6, each year, children put a pair of shoes outside the door of their houses and during the night, 'Santa' fills them."

"It's a tradition in Germany to observe a day for the 'recognition of the dead,' three days before Christmas. During this day, families and friends visit the graveyards in memory of their loved ones," Keller said.

Christmas Eve in Germany is called "Holy Eve." On "Holy Eve," persons usually attend church in the afternoon. In the evening a gala dinner of carp and other delicacies is served.

After dinner family members give and receive gifts. The three days of events following "Holy Eve" are celebrated by families and friends.

These customs of their native lands will not be observed by the foreign students this year. Instead, some of them will spend Christmas with American families and friends in the traditional American way, complete with Santa, Christmas Eve services, decorated Christmas trees, festive music and mistletoe.

For them, the Christmas season will be both a change and a discovery of Christmas in a "foreign" land.

GO WEST, YOUNG MAN—George Davis joins the mass migration of students leaving for home today singing "no more teachers, no more ball points, no more books." Merry Christmas.

TRIMMING—Christmas trees is part of the fun during the "early" holiday festivities on campus. Members of the Union Activities Organization cover the snow sprayed trees which stand in the lobby of the Union with golden bulbs.

THE TREES—The two trees in front of the Administration Building joined with the rest of the campus in lighting up the campus with colorful Christmas lights. These lights will stay on during the holidays.

WITH LIGHTS—The holiday spirit was bright as Rodgers Quadrangle lighted up the front of their dorm with colorful lights. The lighted tree reached to the top of the dorm and extended to the sides of the entrance way.

Hanukkah, Festival Of Lights, Being Observed By Jewish People

Jewish people throughout the world began celebrating their annual eight-day holiday, Hanukkah, of Festival of Lights, last Saturday.

Hanukkah originated thousands of years ago when the Maccabees, a Hebrew tribe, were at war with another tribe. During a battle their supplies were depleted, and only one light remained—a signal flare, to direct their supply wagons to the scene of the struggle. This small jar of oil burned for eight days and eight nights. This miracle helped the Maccabees win the battle.

Since that time, the Jews annually have held joyous festivities for eight days, usually in December. The exact dates are determined by the Jewish calendar.

On the first day of Hanukkah, one candle is lit at sundown and a special prayer is said. On the second day, two candles are lit and again the special prayer is said. This procedure continues progressively until the eighth day when eight candles are lit. Each lit candle signifies another night that the signal flare continued to burn.

Hanukkah is a holiday filled with joy. Gifts are given and received each day, with each succeeding day resulting in larger, more expensive gifts. Songs are sung in Hebrew that are similar to the Christmas carols that Christians sing.

Playing with a dreidel, a four-sided top with a cone on the bottom, is another festivity of Hanukkah. This is a game of chance, played with a pot. An individual spins the dreidel and when it stops spinning, one of the four sides is facing upward. On each of the four sides is a different Hebrew letter. The letters are Gimel, meaning take all the pot; Heh, meaning take half the pot; Shin, meaning put in double; and Zayin, meaning do nothing.

Hanukkah celebrations occur in almost all Jewish homes, just as Christmas is celebrated in almost all Christian homes.

Airline Youth Fare Terminates Dec. 15

American Airlines and other trunk airlines are discontinuing Youth Fares beginning Dec. 15. Students holding half-fare tickets for use during the Christmas holidays should contact American Airlines immediately to make arrangements to obtain a seat.

Students holding half-fare tickets on other airlines should call to determine whether the Youth Fare program still is in effect.

The Youth Fare program is a plan to allow students under the age of 21 to fly at half-fare.

Bowling Green State University operates a summer theatre at Huron, Ohio, as a part of the educational program of the Speech Department.

Letters To The Editor

(Ed. Note—The following letter was received by President Harshman from the Hayes Travel Agency. It is being printed for the benefit of the student body.)

Dear Dr. Harshman:

We sincerely appreciate the opportunity to handle arrangements for the band and members of the faculty, alumni and students in connection with the Mercy Bowl Game.

The members of the band, the cheerleaders, the students, and the football players and the alumni all conducted themselves in a wonderful way. They were ladies and gentlemen in every way and upheld the fine reputation of Bowling Green State University.

The management of the Statler Hilton Hotel in Los Angeles expressed to Mr. Petros their amazement over the exemplary behavior of the group. They told Mr. Petros several times of their own violation that the Bowling Green State University group is the finest group they have ever had in their hotel. There was absolutely no "incident" of any kind. The Statler Hilton management made these comments in the light of their experience with many other college groups they have handled.

I know from Mr. Petros' comments that he agrees fully with such comments. He tells me that the Bowling Green State University group was just perfect. I can add from my own experience with the group, handling arrangements in the Toledo area, that the co-operation given by all concerned has been outstanding.

This has been the finest group of people Mr. Petros and I and the rest of our staff have ever handled. We express our appreciation and thanks to you and to Mr. Richard Weaver, Mr. Jim Hof, Mr. E. J. Kreischer, Mr. Harold Anderson, Mr. Roy Weger and to the many others who have been so kind and so helpful to us in handling this trip.

Yours sincerely

To the Editor:

Because LA is my hometown and because I was able to spend the Thanksgiving recess there and to attend the Mercy Bowl football game, I believe I was privileged to observe a large portion of the reaction which personal friends, the press and Southern Californians in general expressed toward Bowling Green State University.

Until that game, few persons in the LA area knew of BGSU. That is a hard fact, despite the strain it may place on the credibility of persons in Ohio who know the school so intimately. However, because of the Mercy Bowl, the name of BG became known, I'm sure, by thousands of people for the first time.

My own friends, relatives, former coworkers and acquaintances were full of questions about the institution here, and almost all of them were very favorably impressed with what they saw of BG representatives. The University Band was highly praised for its half-time program, and the football team enjoyed the sympathetic concern of many persons. In short, BG received from Southern Californians about as much approval as Southern Californians are charitable enough to give to any "foreigners."

Post Office To Face Traditional Mail Rush After Yuletide Season

While many post offices all over the country must cope with the traditional Christmas rush to send packages and cards, the University postal service will face this rush after Christmas.

The rush comes after the holidays because students then dispatch a large volume of mail to friends and relatives.

However, the Post Office has noted an increase of mail as campus mail and packages are streaming through in larger quantity than usual.

Christmas vacation will bring the traditional "sigh of relief" for University postal employees, but leftover letters and late-arriving packages still will remain to be forwarded to students' homes.

The University Post Office will remain open during the vacation period, except on Christmas Day. The regular hours will be week days from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 5 p.m. and on Saturdays from 9 to 11:30 a.m.

OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

Students who are candidates for graduation Jan. 26, may have their measurements taken now in the University Bookstore.

Faculty needing rental regalia also may place their order now.

No cash is needed at the time of order.

Leadership Dinner Set For Jan. 11

The annual Leadership Banquet, sponsored by the Association of Women Students, will be January 11.

The purpose of the banquet is to honor outstanding women on campus. The annual AWS Scholarship also will be awarded. This scholarship will be given to the outstanding freshman woman of last year, judged both on scholarship and extracurricular activities. The funds for the scholarship were collected at last year's Penny Night.

The event will start at 5 p.m. with appetizers being served in the Alumni Room. Dinner will be served at 5:30 p.m. in the Dogwood Suite.

US Newspaper Habits Subject Of Survey

A recent survey, conducted by the American Newspaper Publishers Association's Bureau of Advertising, showed that newspapers play an important part in the lives of persons at every social level.

The Bureau of Advertising, with ANPA as co-host, presented the findings at a meeting of more than 900 advertising, business, and press executives in New York Nov. 29.

The project, involving 4,826 interviews in 622 sampling areas, was called the most comprehensive study ever made of the reading public.

The survey discovered that one or more newspapers are read every week day in 86.4 per cent of the 54 million U.S. households. This percentage is relatively equal for both the metropolitan and suburban areas. The 86.4 per cent reaches every segment of the American public, with its highest circulation among the higher-income, better-educated, more influential people.

In reporting the part a newspaper plays in a person's personal life, the survey found that the reader does more than just read the news.

In the past three months, 53 per cent of the readers queried clipped items other than advertising out of the paper, with 18 per cent sending the clippings on to someone else.

In addition, 43 per cent have visited their newspaper office or plant; 45 per cent have placed classified advertisements; 23 per cent have written or telephoned letters to the editor.

"The regular pattern of home delivery," said Dr. Leo Bogart, the Bureau's vice president of marketing, planning, and research, "provides the basic context for the social role of newspapers as a family medium."

Seventy-one per cent of the people receive their paper either by home delivery or mail. In 25 per cent of the cases, the newspaper is bought at a store, newsstand, or a self-service rack.

Two-thirds of the persons surveyed have a habitual time for reading the paper, the survey found. The typical reader, however, looks at his paper an average of 2.4 times per day.

The persons also were asked to describe how they would feel if they would have to get along without television and the newspaper. The response, "I would feel quite lost without it," was selected by 49 per cent in the case of newspapers, while only 28 per cent said they could not get along without television.

Literary Magazine Under Consideration

A committee to study the feasibility of establishing a campus literary magazine will be formed following Christmas vacation, as a result of action taken by the Journalism Activities Committee Tuesday. Student Council earlier had recommended to the Committee that such a study be made.

Judith L. Boyd, who presented the resolution in favor of a literary magazine to Student Council, was present to speak in favor of the magazine.

Ann Scherry, NEWS editor; Tom Stellers, Key editor; Robert Hoover, NEWS business manager; and John Breitweiser, Key business manager, reported to the Committee on the present status of the publications.

The Committee will meet again following Christmas vacation.

Members of the Committee are Prof. Jesse J. Currier, chairman of the journalism department, chairman; Dr. Donald Bowman, professor of physics; Dr. Morgan M. Brent, associate professor of biology; Dr. Paul F. Leedy, provost; Patricia A. O'Brien, Dean L. Shappel, and Dr. Raymond Yeager, associate professor of speech.

Tankers Enter MAC Relays At Kent

Bowling Green's Falcon swimmers, after opening their season with an intra-squad meet last Saturday, will get down to business tomorrow as they travel to Kent for the 9th annual Mid-American Conference Relay Championships.

Last year for the second year in a row, the Falcon swimmers finished second in the MAC relays. Two years ago Miami placed first and last year Ohio U. won.

Finishing behind Ohio U. and Bowling Green last year were Miami, Western Michigan, and Kent State.

The Falcons 200-yd. freestyle relay team of Franz Fauley, Hal Henning, Barry Walsh, and Gary LaPrise set a new record last season with a time of 1:33.4. The mark surpassed the old mark of 1:34.1 set by Bowling Green in 1959.

The events included in the relays are: 200-yd. freestyle, 400-yd. individual medley, 200-yd. backstroke, 500-yd. freestyle medley, 200-yd. butterfly-breaststroke, 400-yd. medley, 400-yd. freestyle, 200-yd. freestyle for freshmen, 200-yd. medley, and diving.

Coach Sam Cooper's tankers have won the MAC relays five of the previous eight years.

On Jan. 6 and 7 Bowling Green will host the Ohio Senior AAU Championships. Last year Ohio U. knocked off Bowling Green in the men's division. The Dayton Dolphins won the women's division.

Bowling Green's freshmen also will be competing in the meet. It will be trying to better last year's third-place finish behind Ohio U. and the Falcons' varsity.

The Falcons will begin dual meet competition with Kenyon College on Jan. 13 in the Natatorium.

Holiday Games

Cagers Have 8 Road Games; Okla. Tourney Highlights Trip

Bowling Green's high-flying Falcon cagers take to the road for their next eight games.

The Falcons will attempt to win their first road game in two years when they travel to Western Ontario tomorrow night. Last year Bowling Green lost all 10 of its road games.

Before Christmas the Falcons will play Duquesne on Dec. 12, and the University of Michigan on Dec. 14.

On Dec. 27-30, Bowling Green will be traveling to Oklahoma City, Okla., to participate in the All-College Tournament. The Falcons are scheduled to face Seattle in the opening rounds on Dec. 27. The other teams in the tournament are Houston, Wichita, Utah State, Texas Christian, Texas A & M, and Oklahoma City.

The Falcons open their bid for the Mid-American Conference title on Jan. 3, when they encounter Western Michigan.

On Jan. 6, Bowling Green travels to Athens to battle Ohio U., the defending MAC champs.

Last year's Western Ontario game was one that Coach Harold Anderson would like to forget. In probably one of the worst-played games Falcon followers have ever witnessed, Bowling Green came out on top 56-36.

The Falcons surprised a stubborn Duquesne team last season by upsetting the Dukes 68-65 in Memorial Hall.

Bowling Green's journey to Ann Arbor, Mich., will be the first time the Falcons have played the University of Michigan. The Falcons' two previous encounters with Big 10 team Michigan State ended in defeats. However, Bowling Green came close to upsetting the Spartans last year in Memorial Hall before dropping 70-67.

This will be the Falcons' fourth appearance in the All-College Tournament. In their first showing in 1952-53, Bowling Green finished last out of eight teams. They finished third in 1958-59, and fourth in 1959-60.

Bowling Green's first MAC opponent, Western Michigan, will be out to better its 4-8 conference record of last year. The Broncos finished in a last place tie with Bowling Green and Kent.

In the two meetings between these two teams last year each won a game. Bowling Green grabbed the opener 78-56, and Western took the rematch 86-80.

The Broncos are led by 6-10 center Bob Bolton, who received an all-American honorable mention last year.

The Falcons will be out to avenge two close defeats suffered at the hands of Ohio U. last year when they meet the Bobcats in their final road game.

The Bobcats, defending MAC champs with a 10-2 league record last year, beat the Falcons 62-61 and 74-72.

Gone from last years' team are Bunk Adams and Larry Kruger, the Bobcats' top two scorers. The only proven consistent scorer returning is guard Bill Whaley.

Broncos To Meet U. of New Mexico In Aviation Bowl

The First Annual Aviation Bowl will pit Western Michigan against New Mexico tomorrow at Dayton.

Western Michigan, runner-up in the Mid-American Conference, is representing the league instead of title holder Bowling Green. Originally, the winner of the MAC was to be the host school in the Aviation Bowl, but Bowling Green participated in the Mercy Bowl. Therefore the MAC runner-up was selected to play.

New Mexico finished third in the Skyline Conference and posted a season record of 6-4. The Lobos hold victories over New Mexico State, 41-7; Texas Western, 7-6; Air Force Academy, 21-6; Utah, 21-16; Colorado State, 20-8; and Brigham Young, 33-6. New Mexico's losses have come to Montana, 40-8; Utah State, 41-7; Arizona, 22-21; and Wyoming, 33-7.

The Broncos completed their regular season with a mark of 5-3-1. They hold wins over Central Michigan, 27-21; Miami, 6-3; Toledo, 7-0; Marshall, 21-0; and Kent State, 14-0. Western's losses have been to Detroit, 21-14; Bowling Green, 21-0; and Utah State, 65-22. The Broncos ended their season with a 20-20 tie with Ohio U.

The only common opponent for the two teams was Utah State, who beat the Lobos by 34 points and the Broncos by 43 points.

Croft, Anderson Drafted By Pros

Two Falcon football players have been drafted by the professional football leagues.

Jerry Croft and Karl Anderson were notified Tuesday that they had been selected in the AFL and NFL football drafts held last Saturday and Monday.

Croft, a 6-2, 230-pound tackle, was drafted by the Buffalo Bills of the AFL and the Baltimore Colts of the NFL. Anderson, a 6-5, 265-pound tackle, was drafted by the Detroit Lions of the NFL.

"I never expected the Colts would draft me," said Croft. "That was a big surprise." He added, "Several times a scout from the Colts had been up to see me. Also a scout from the Bills had come to one of our practices."

Croft

Anderson

Croft will be leaving tomorrow for the west coast where he will be the guest of the Colts at the Baltimore-Los Angeles Rams game on Saturday. "The Colts want me to go out and they will talk to me there about my future with Baltimore."

In his football career at Bowling Green, Croft has gained numerous honors. He was selected to the first team all-MAC in 1960. This year he was voted by his teammates as the most valuable lineman and most valuable player on the squad. In being selected the most valuable football player, Croft was the recipient of the first annual Thurl Shupe Memorial Award.

Even though Croft was drafted for a guard position, a spot he has never played, he is determined to give his best. "I knew because of my size that I would be switched to guard," said Croft, "but that makes no difference. I'll really be trying because I consider this quite a challenge."

Croft still has one more game to play before he can think about turning professional. On Dec. 30 he will be taking part in the annual Blue-Gray football game at Montgomery, Ala. Only two other Bowling Green football players ever have played in the Blue-Gray games. They were Jack Hecker in 1955, and Jack Giroux in 1956.

For Anderson, being drafted by the Lions came as no surprise. "I received a telegram from the Lions last week so I kind of expected it," said Anderson.

"They called me after I was drafted to tell me and said they would contact me in the near future," said Anderson. "I'm not real certain what I will do, but I think I'll just wait and see what they have to offer."

Men's I M

Mike Phillips won the all-campus badminton tournament by defeating Dick Leathers two out of three games. Phillips went through the tournament undefeated.

Bowling Tournament
Entries for the intramural bowling tournament Jan. 7 and 14 are due today.

The top 10 bowlers having the highest three-game totals in the Jan. 7 preliminaries will be advanced to the finals.

Falcons Down Canisius To Win 3rd Straight

Coach Harold Anderson's cagers rolled to their third win of the season Wednesday night when they dropped previously unbeaten Canisius 74-66.

For the third game in a row the Falcons had at least four men in double figures. Elijah Chatman was high for Bowling Green with 19 points. He was followed by Butch Komives with 18, and Wavy Junior and Nate Thurmond with 11 each.

Against Hillsdale Monday night, the Falcons had four men in double figures as they trounced the Dales 85-41. Komives and Thurmond were high scorers with 13 points each, followed by Chatman with 11 and Burley Chapman with 10.

Big 6-10 1/2 Thurmond grabbed 14 rebounds against Canisius to equal his total against Bradley. Against Hillsdale he was second high in rebounding with eight. Bob Carbaugh grabbed rebounding honors against the Dales with nine.

The Falcons jumped off to a quick lead against the Griffs and were never overtaken. Bowling Green led at halftime 42-25, and at one time in the third quarter were out in front by as much as 22 points.

Coach Anderson began to substitute in the final quarter and the Griffs managed to cut the winning margin to eight points.

Bowling Green continued to show the aggressiveness it has displayed in its first two games. Bobby Dawson managed to steal the ball away several times, as did Junior and Chatman. Thurmond completely had his opponents confused as he kept batting shots down.

In the second half, however, the Falcons' starting five began to show signs of tiring and the Griffs, who had been substituting more freely, began to take advantage.

Bill O'Connor, the Griffs junior sensation, was bottled up for nearly three quarters of the game, but when Thurmond fouled out he began scoring. O'Connor was high scorer with 23 points.

The Falcons hit 28 of 64 field goal attempts for a 43.8 percentage. From the foul line they hit 7.04 percent with 18 of 27 foul shots.

Canisius made 19 of 55 field goals for .345 percent and connected on 28 of 40 foul shots for .700 percent.

Bowling Green out rebounded the Griffs 58-33.

The Falcons have scored 237 points in their first three games, while limiting their opponents to 170—or an average of 79-57.

The loss for Canisius was its first of the season. The Griffs opened their season with a 72-59 win over Ohio U., defending Mid-American Conference champions.

The Falcon yearlings split in two games this week. They defeated Schmidt's Chevy 88-82 on Monday night, but fell to Bowling Green's JV team 81-65 Wednesday night.

John Provost led the scoring for the frosh against Schmidt's with 19 points. He was followed by Rick Coven with 15, Al Porter, 14, and Clyde Paterson, 12.

Against the Falcons' JV team, the yearlings had three men in double figures, Bob Dwors led the scoring with 21 points, followed by Willie Davis with 13, and Coven, 10. Coven with 16 and Dwors with 14 led the yearlings in rebounding.

High scorers for the JV team were Tom Baker with 21 points, followed by Lester Gast with 14, Mel Gilbert, 12, and Derry Curran, 10.

Wrestlers Idle Until Jan. 6

Following last night's wrestling match with Adrian College, Bowling Green's wrestlers will be idle until Jan. 6, when the team travels to Columbus to compete in a quadrangular match with Ohio State, Wisconsin, and West Virginia.

The quadrangular match will be the second of the season for Bowling Green. The Falcons finished fourth earlier in the season when they hosted Kent, Ball State, and Western Michigan.

Last year the grapplers had their 25-game winning streak snapped when they lost to Wisconsin 17-16 in a double dual match.

Miami will be Bowling Green's first Mid-American Conference opponent Jan. 12, when the Redskins invade Memorial Hall.

WHAT A DIFFERENCE a chair makes! "Little" Bobby Dawson, 5-11, needs to stand on a chair to see eye to eye with "big" Nate Thurmond, 6-10 1/2. Captain Dawson and all-American candidate Thurmond both feel the sky is the limit this season.

6-3 Dual Meet Record Compiled By Harriers

"A successful season," was Mel Brodt's comment on the cross country season which ended with the sports banquet, Nov. 30, in the Union.

This year's harriers compiled a 6-3 dual meet record. They were fourth in the Mid-American Conference championships; second in the all-Ohio; ninth in the Central Collegiate; sixteenth in the NCAA Championships.

Brodt, commenting at the sports banquet on the final meets said, "The experience gained from running in those races more than warrants taking an average team to them. I expect this sophomore-laden squad to improve—we will see next year."

Barry Binkley was the leading runner for the Falcons this season. He picked up five individual wins in six dual meets, and was the number one runner for the squad throughout the season.

The sophomore speedster from Cincinnati finished seventh in the MAC and was fourth in the all-Ohio. Coach Brodt has hopes for Binkley turning into a real good performer—"If he just realizes his potential," said Brodt.

Binkley's fastest time for four miles was 20:31. He ran this at the Central Collegiate placing eighteenth.

The number two man on this year's squad was senior Bob Frost. Frost, competing for the first time since '57 in cross country, received the honorary Captain's award from Coach Brodt at the sports banquet. His best performance was in the MAC, where he placed thirteenth for Bowling Green. His best time was 21:23 at the Notre Dame Invitational.

Although Lloyd Kime was the seventh man on the freshman squad a year ago, this year he improved to become the number four man on the varsity. He also was presented an award at the sports banquet—"Most Improved" member of the '61 cross country squad.

Joe Muscarella, the little man on the squad, and the number three man throughout most of the season should improve to be a top runner for Bowling Green next year, said Coach Brodt.

The fifth man, a senior from Mansfield, John Schengilli, started out the season with an injured knee but improved steadily and ran well as the anchor man for the Falcons in the final six meets.

"Dick Elasser may push Binkley considerably next fall," Brodt said. The freshman distance ace won as many individual dual meets as Binkley—six, and was never beaten by his teammates during the season. Following him in points scored during the season were Dale Cordova, Ralph Canada, Vince Rehfield, Tom LaSalle and Bill Flynn.

Frosh Tankers Rally To Defeat Flint, 45-43

Bowling Green's freshman swimming team got off to a good start Tuesday evening as it downed Flint Jr. College 45-43. The Falcon yearlings had to fight all the way from behind, but they won the last event to capture the win.

"This was probably one of the best meets we'll have all year," remarked frosh Coach Paul Vogel.

Bowling Green took only four of the 10 first places, but managed to pick up enough second and third place finishes to win the meet.

Bill White, with a time of :24.6, took first in the 50-yd. freestyle, and teammate Dan Beer finished second for Bowling Green.

The yearlings took first and second in the 200-yd. backstroke with Paul Schreiber winning with a time of 2:19.6. Mac Walker was second.

In the 400-yd. freestyle, Mike Symons won in 5:06.4, and Bob Leuten placed second.

Bowling Green's 400-yd. freestyle relay team of Dan Weller, Mike Zinn, White, and Beer won with a time of 3:47.5.

University Hosts Safety Meeting

"Operation Living" will be the theme of the fourth annual Governor's Youth Traffic Safety Conference here tomorrow.

The conference will be attended by 300 high school students from 12 northeastern Ohio counties.

Their objectives will be the solving of four major problems: personal attitude, youth and traffic law enforcement, specific youth problems, and patterns for action.

"The meeting will be conducted by the students," said Bruce Bellard, associate professor of physical education.

"The students will attempt to solve the four problems and take the solutions back to their high schools to explain to their classmates," he said.

The conference is one of 10 being conducted in Ohio between Oct. 28 and Dec. 31. All have the same slogan: "Youth Wants to Know the Answer to Their Problems."

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle requested that the University participate in the program because of its interest in traffic safety, and its geographic location.

Counseling Service To Conduct Annual Teachers' Exams

The National Teacher Examinations, prepared and administered annually by Educational Testing Service, will be given at the University on Feb. 10, by Dr. Frank C. Arnold, coordinator of counseling services.

The examinations will be given at the same date at more than 200 testing centers throughout the United States.

At the one-day testing session, students may take the common examinations, which include tests in professional information, general culture, English expression, and non verbal reasoning; and one or two of 13 optional examinations designed to demonstrate mastery of subject matter to be taught. The University will advise the student as to whether he should take the National Teacher Examination and which of the optional examinations to select.

A Bulletin of Information in which an application is inserted describing registration procedures may be obtained from Dr. Arnold at the Counseling Center, 303 Hanna.

Applications must be received by the national office no later than Jan. 12.

World-Wide Cities Theme Of Orchesis

"So Moves the World" is the theme of the annual Orchesis concert.

The modern dance concert, to be presented Jan. 12 and 13 in the Main Auditorium, will be based on a theme of 15 cities throughout the world.

The mood of each city will be captured in modern dance and the costumes used will be representative of the various cities, including New York, Athens, Paris, and New Orleans.

The 45 members of Orchesis have been practicing each Thursday as a group, and several times a week in individual groups for the different dances. Janet A. Smik is president of the group.

Greeks Give Christmas Parties, Play Santa For Area Children

Seventeen days 'til Christmas—for most of us. But certain children and adults in the Bowling Green area have been visited by Saint Nick, in the form of 10 social fraternities and sororities.

Gifts of toys and food baskets, as well as Christmas programs, were presented by the Greeks.

Alpha Xi Delta and Pi Kappa Alpha held their annual party for the crippled children of Wood County. The children were given gifts purchased by the fraternity and sorority members, and the film story of "The Littlest Angel" was shown.

The children of the Maumee Children's Home attended Christmas exchange dinners given by the Alpha Phi's and the Sigma Chi's. The dinners were held at both houses, and each child was given a gift.

At their annual party for the underprivileged children of Bowling Green, the Delta Tau Deltas and Phi Mus presented the children with new and rebuilt toys.

Orphans from Maumee and Toledo were given a party by Alpha Chi Omega and Theta Chi.

Five Cub Scout dens, the den mothers, and their husbands sang carols, played games, and watched a Christmas program at the Kappa Sigma house. The program included a talent show and comedy wrestling match.

The Kappa Delta sorority members gave food baskets and toys to approximately 20 foster children staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Miller in Weston.

Members of Sigma Phi Epsilon donated money to the County Welfare fund. The money will be used to buy baskets of food for needy families.

Wolf Calls

Social Club Dominated By Own Status Scale

By Jerry Wolfson

There's a quasi-secret organization on campus which has a rather fascinating membership. The club is a social one; no dues are paid and the membership constantly changes.

I am referring to the "FOBB"—Fraternal Order of Brown Baggers. Each day the group gets together for a few minutes to eat lunch from brown paper bags.

These are the hardy band of poverty-stricken commuters, and I am proud to stand up and be counted with them when roll is called.

The only requirement for membership is that the applicant live at least five miles from Bowling Green and carry his lunch in a brown paper sack.

Once an uptown swell from Toledo tried to join our clique while carrying a real honest-to-goodness dinner pail. To make matters worse, he actually brought coffee in a thermos bottle. Naturally, he was immediately black-balled.

Not everyone is shrewd enough to be a brown-bagger. Each day there is a certain amount of food-stuff trading conducted. Just as in horse-trading, if you aren't a sharpie, you may lose your shirt—or in this case, sandwich.

The brown-baggers have placed their own unwritten values on each item which emerges from the paper sack. The law of supply and demand prevails and the society thrives on competition and free enterprise.

For example, an orange is usually pretty stable trading stock. With some clever negotiations, the owner may be able to deal one off for a ham salad sandwich.

That is, if the ham is really ham and there is lettuce and mayonnaise on it.

A peanut butter sandwich on white bread is not much in demand but a sharpie who has the foresight to put jelly on it may be able to deal it off for a 10-cent chocolate bar and one or two oatmeal cookies.

One of the most delicious treats of all, however, is the peanut butter sandwich on rye bread, with lettuce and mayonnaise, and topped off with a generous dab of corn relish.

A rarity of this nature is apt to command four brownies, a five-cent bag of potato chips, and a liverwurst on pumpernickel.

Probably at the head of the list of trading stock come the giant dill pickle and the cold chicken drumstick. One who brings such succulent delicacies can virtually name his own price.

Our little organization is not without social stratification. We have all sorts of status symbols. The lowest man on the totem-pole is the one who re-uses his brown bag from day to day and wraps his food in used bread wrappers.

In the next position up the ladder in our stratification are those people who can afford real waxed paper, but who still use a brown bag for several days.

Then come the ambitious status-seekers who use a new piece of waxed paper and a new brown bag every single day. These people border precariously on the brink of snobbery, however.

At the zenith of the social scale are the truly elite. They carry new insulated bags every day. To add insult to injury, they even wrap their food in aluminum foil.

When a member reaches this stage it is not long before he graduates from our little group. After graduation he advances to the Nest where he eats lunch with the rich people.

Although our social structure may seem somewhat incompatible, we band together whenever a common enemy threatens. Just last week we voted to change our noon-day lunching place. One of those sneaky sociology professors was seen taking notes near our rendezvous.

We may be a little odd but we sure don't feel like being the subject of some creepy thesis.

Senior Booklet Sent Schools, Companies; 920 Students Listed

Placement booklets containing qualifications listings for 920 graduating seniors were mailed Saturday to 600 companies and 600 school systems in the United States.

James L. Galloway, director of placement, stated that the booklet's "purpose is to supplement our regular interview procedure of company and school representatives visiting the campus."

Mr. Galloway said, "We are one of the first placement offices to do this type of thing. I know of no others who are doing it." The booklet, entitled "Placement Preview," is financed by senior class dues.

This is the third year the booklet has been published. The previous two years listed a small representation of graduating seniors. Last year, 250 seniors were listed.

At the beginning of this year, seniors filled out placement cards. Type of work preferred and location preferences were indicated, as well as home and school addresses. Seniors are listed under the college in which they are enrolled and are subdivided into the majors within the particular college.

"From past experience the response from interested employers directly to graduating seniors was good," Mr. Galloway said.

28 Students Join English Honorary

Sigma Tau Delta, national professional society in English, installed 28 new members Dec. 3.

Juniors or seniors ranking in the upper 35 per cent of their classes, having a minimum 3.0 cumulative grade average in English, having completed at least twelve semester hours in English, and having completed at least two semesters in residence are eligible for membership.

New members are John Allen, Richard L. Arthur, Kathryn S. Ballmer, Betty J. Barrett, Kathryn L. Becker, Carol W. Braden, Louanne C. Brown, Sue A. Deffenbaugh, Betty J. Faldt, Suzanne E. Fisk, Peggy D. Gillespie.

Susan M. Keim, William L. Laferty, Pat A. Lewicki, Sandra J. McDaniel, Judith G. McKnight, Daniel W. McGinnis, Helen F. Namey, Patricia A. O'Brien, Karen A. Oppenheim, Sue E. Osborne, Peter M. Palermo Jr., Joan A. Slebos, Elaine E. Stamatis, Mary L. Starling, Brenda K. Smith, Gary N. Puntel, and Ronald B. Van Lieu.

Martha I. Smith presides over monthly meetings of Sigma Tau Delta. Dr. Giles R. Floyd, associate professor of English, is adviser.

First Campus Movies After Holiday Recess To Star Day, Sinatra

The campus movies for the week end of Jan. 5 and 6 will be "Never So Few" and "Please Don't Eat the Daisies."

"Please Don't Eat the Daisies" features Doris Day, David Niven, and Janis Paige. The movie gives an amusing account of an obscure university professor's rise to fame as a top Broadway critic.

"Never So Few" stars Frank Sinatra, Gina Lollobrigida, and Peter Lawford. The plot revolves around an American Army captain in the jungles of Burma as he leads a handful of native guerrillas against overwhelming Japanese forces.

"Never So Few" will be shown at 7 p.m. Friday and at 9 p.m. Saturday. "Please Don't Eat the Daisies" will be shown at 9:15 p.m. Friday and at 7 p.m. Saturday.

UAO Plans N.Y. Trip

The Campus Services Committee of the Union Activities Organization is sponsoring a trip to New York during semester break.

The party will travel to New York by train, leaving Jan. 26 and returning Jan. 31 in time for sorority rush. Maximum cost will be $75, which includes transportation, sightseeing tours, and hotel accommodations.

While in New York, the group will see three of the following plays: "Carnival," "Camelot," "Merry, Merry," "Sail Away," "Kean," "A Gay Life," or "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying."

Persons interested in the trip must sign up in the UAO office by Jan. 5. A minimum of 25 persons must sign up or the trip will be cancelled.

PanHel Establishes Scholarship

A Florence Currier Award, consisting of a $50 scholarship, has been established by Panhellenic Council.

At its Dec. 4 meeting, Pan Hel decided the $50 annual scholarship is to be awarded on the following criteria:

The recipient must be a junior sorority woman. She must meet the minimum 2.7 cumulative grade average and be in need of financial aid. Finally, selection of the recipient also will be based on sorority and campus activities.

The Florence Currier Award will be presented at the spring Greek Honors Banquet.

Pan Hel also announced that at a Presidents' Council meeting, consisting of the sorority presidents, held Nov. 30, the $6.50 meal plan for the sorority formal rush period, occurring between semesters, was accepted.

Sorority women will be served 12 meals in the west dining hall of Founders Quadrangle.

It also was decided at the meeting that the $2 sorority formal rush registration fee would be refunded to those women who do not meet the minimum grade average of 2.0.

city Income Tax Department, discussed the problem of withholding taxes for University and fraternity employees which includes cooks and head residents.

Mr. Wade suggested the fraternities themselves withhold "one half of one per cent" of the total salary, instead of having the employee go to the trouble of going to the city offices and filing a special return.

He added, "This would save a lot of trouble and red tape between the University and the Income Tax Department."

Printing problems have delayed publication of the first issue of the new IFC newspaper, "Greek Arm." Richard W. Bradley, IFC executive vice president, said it would be ready for distribution after the Christmas recess.

Matthews Aids In HPE Project

Dr. David O. Matthews has accepted an appointment to serve on the National President's Committee of the American Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

The purpose of the committee is to develop a pamphlet establishing guidelines for the preparation of a manuscript which will be presented during the annual National Education Association convention.

Last year Dr. Matthews, associate professor of health and physical education, served as chairman of the Ohio Association of Intramural Directors and presently is serving as chairman of the Ohio American Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

Holiday Hours Set By Union

The Union will observe the following hours during the Christmas Recess:

Newsstand, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Falcon's Nest, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.
Pheasant Room, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. (Closed on Sunday)
